

MATSUDA Gonroku's Maki-e Studio

Related Materials and Items

Date : September 6-December 1, 2024

MATSUDA Gonroku's tools

Left showcase

- 1 : Kujira bera (whale spatula)
- 2 : Brush modeled after one from the Heian period (794-1192) discovered during the repair of Chuson-ji Temple's Golden Hall
- 3 : Spatula made of cypress bark
- 4 : Brushes used only for final coating
- 5 : Brushes used only for undercoating
- 6 : Brushes for fine application
- 7 : Small brushes
- 8 : Ashirai kebo (treatment brush)
- 9 : Tortoiseshell spatula for washing maki-e brushes
- 10 : Brushes for "hikkaki" (scratching) made of wire of different sizes
- 11 : Bunmawashi (compass)
- 12 : Kenki (dog's fang)
- 13 : Taiki (sea bream tooth)
- 14 : Various maki-e fude (decoration brushes)
- 15 : Fun-zutsu (powder pipe)
- 16 : Knives used to shave a spatula or scrape off dry lacquer, called a lacquerer's knife (nushi-gatana)
- 17 : Yari-kanna (spear plane)
- 18 : Chisels and cutting knives

Articles owned by the artist

- 19 : Felt hat
- 20 : Wristwatch
- 21 : Writing utensils
- 22 : Glasses

A drawer of powder cabinet

Middle showcase

- 23 : Fun-chin
(a paperweight for holding folded-paper packages of maki-e gold and silver powder)
- 24 : Fun-saji (a small spoon for maki-e gold and silver powder)
- 25 : Fun-zutsu (powder pipe) made of bird quill
(see also Exhibit No. 15)
- 26 : Tume-ban
a small pallet for lacquer when working on maki-e)
- 27 : Ashirai kebo (treatment brush)
- 28 : Harai kebo (a brush used to remove dust)

Landscape in craft works :

MATSUDA Gonroku and other craftsmen

Middle showcase

- 29 : MATSUDA Gonroku : "Bowls, half-red/half-black lacquer", c.1939
- 30 : Photos of Research Trip to China
- 31 : MATSUDA Gonroku : "Tea caddy, "Looking up Mt. Fuji from Miho Pine Beach", maki-e and rankaku", 1977
- 32 : Design of "Looking up Mt. Fuji from Miho Pine Beach"
- 33 : Description of "Looking up Mt. Fuji from Miho Pine Beach"

Reference Materials

- 34 : Illustration of maki-e panel in dining room of the cruise ship BRASIL MARU
- 35 : MATSUDA Gonroku : "Tea caddy, sailing ship design, rankaku", unfinished

Right showcase

- 36 : MATSUDA Norio : "The Way homeward, ornamental box, maki-e", 1988
- 37 : FUJII Kanbun : "Tea caddy, Kinkazan design, chinkin", 1967
- 38 : ISOI Masami : "Covered food box, nowaki (searing blast) design, kimma", c.1973
- 39 : KATO Hajime : "Square bowl, chrysanthemum and peony design, yellow and red enamels, the Ming-dynasty Kasei style" 1953

Materials used for maki-e

- 40 : Turbo marmoratus
- 41 : Shell sheet
- 42 : Abalone
- 43 : Mexican abalone
- 44 : Egg shell (Quail)
- 45 : Ivory
- 46 : Various materials for hyomon